

CURRICULUM VITAE

FABRIZIO FRANCIA

Profile

E-mail: fabrizio.francia@lbfpavvocati.it

Fabrizio Francia is a partner of the firm since 2008.

In 1994 he graduated in law with honours, with a focus on litigation, from Trento University.

After having completed the relevant training required by law, he qualified as an Italian lawyer (“avvocato”) in June 1999. He assists and represents leading local companies and private individuals in various areas of law.

He has been a speaker and moderator at conferences and seminars on private law and collaborates in the organisation of training events with entities and leading institutions providing continuing education for professionals.

Professional Activities

Since 2008, Partner of Studio Legale LBFP

2000-2008, Associate of Studio Legale LBFP

1999-2000, Associate of Anwaltskanzlei Surich-Neander-Sommerfeld in Bremen (D)

1996-1998, Trainee Lawyer

Education

2011, Specialisation seminar “D.lgs. 231/2001 – il modello organizzativo” (Legislative Decree 231/2001 – the organisation model), Centro di Studi Forense, Euroconference S.p.a., Padua

2011, Specialisation seminar “D.lgs. 231/2001 – L’Organismo di Vigilanza” (Legislative Decree 231/2001 – the Supervisory Body), Centro di Studi Forense, Euroconference S.p.a., Padua

2009, Specialisation seminar on labour law “Licenziamenti individuali e collettivi” (individual dismissals and mass lay-offs), Giuffrè, Padua

2009, Specialisation seminar on private law “Il risarcimento del danno” (damages), Centro Studi Forense – Euroconference S.p.a., Verona

1994, J.D., Trento University

Qualifications

Since 2013, admitted to the Highest Courts

Since 1993, admitted to the Italian Bar, Bolzano Bar Association

Areas of practice

Private Law

Labour Law

General Criminal Law and White-collar Crimes

Languages

Italian, German